much interest is made by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rech, of Howard, Kansas, mak-ing public the news of the betrothal of their daughter, Ednah, to Mr. W. C. Cartlidge, of Topeka.

Cartildge, of Topeka.

The announcement is one that will be of interest to a large circle of Topeka people, for Mr. Cartildge was born and brought up in this city, and belongs to one of the pioneer families of this part of the state. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cartildge. His father is general tax commissioner of the Santa Fe railway company, and he is himself well known in railway circles, being claim agent for the Rock Island company for this western territory of the road. Between the years ritory of the road. Between the years of 1903 and 1907 he lived in Chicago where he had the position of claim adjuster for the Rock Island. After his service in Chicago he returned to To-peka to take the office with the road that he now holds. He is one of the most eligible bachelors of the city, and Deputy game wardens, city employees and especially those employees at Gage are all interested in the recent arrival of four prairie chickens at Gage park. The chickens arrived unannounced—have simply selected the park for winter feeding grounds—but are none the less welcome. Every effort is being made to encourage them to remain and woe betide the luckless hunter who violates the game laws by shooting at them. Prairie chickens were once pleatiful near Topeka, but have now become a rarity.
